THE WORLD THIS WEEK

By ROBERT PATTERSON

Four Horseman Ride Again

Adolf Hitler says the outcome of the savage struggle now sweeping Europe will decide the destinies of that continent for the next 1,000 years. Discounting the German dictators' weakness for speaking in terms of milleniums, it is certain that the havoc wrought by this war will not disappear when the last wisp of battle smoke has lifted from the blood-stained battle grounds. Whatever nation is the victor, the people of Europe are the losers. Populations mentally and physically stricken by war, ravaged by hunger and disease—these will be the ghostly tenants in the fallen house of European civilization, if civilization is the word for it. A victory for Germany does not spel pealce and a victory for the Allies spells for Germany—in view of the Versailles Treaty's failure—a peace treaty so vengeful that the 1919 Peace Conference will seem, by comparison, a haven of brotherly love. The incontestable victors in this war will be that hard-riding brotherhood, the Four Horsemen who bear pestilence, famine, death and destruction in their train.

Aiding The Allies

New battle lines in Europe are building new battle lines in Congress. Along this new political front on Capitol Hill, Senator Austin (Rep., N. H.), among others, has taken his stand to issue a rallying cry which is certain to swell, not diminish, in volume during the coming days: "The democracies are on the brink of disaster. Let us aid the Allies by lifting the ban—in the case of Britain and France—on loans to debt-defaulting nations. You don't have to become a belligerent in order to help the democracies win this war." As a matter of fact, the Allies now have large cash reserves in this country sufficient for their present wants here. We are despatching to them, with all possible haste, all types of military aircraft and even, in some instances, delaying our own defense program in order to do so. Those now proposing that we throw open the gates to unlimited credits to the Allies are crossing their bridges before they come to them.

Elbow Room

Has America reached the limit of its expansion? A firm "No!" comes from the engineers of reclamation who point to vast, barren stretches of land still untouched by settlement. This seemingly sterile earth holds great potentialities. John C. Page, Commissioner of the Reclamation Bureau, states that the 20 million acres of irrigable land remaining in the west constitutes the future "elbow room" of the United Staes, an area offering room for expansion, settlement, productive labor, new markets, all for the upbuilding of America's future. To the magic achieved by reclamation, California herself can bear witness. The Imperial valley is itself living testimony of what marvels can be wrought when sunbaked desert, made fertile by abundant water, turns into a green treasure chest of agricultural riches. What has once been done, can be done again!

Clubwomen Enjoy Epicurean Tour at Meeting Monday

In imagination the attendants at the Country Woman's club meeting Monday enjoyed an epicurean tour of the Pacific coast from San Diego to Seattle. This tour was conducted by Miss Elise E. Kleemeyer and Mrs. Mary F. McClure of the Los Gatos high school faculty, who in summer vacations and on short trips had personally visited many of these places where either the food characteristic of some nationality is served, some particular item of the menu is exceptional or the style and decoration of the place or its view are the attraction.

They conducted their travelogue as an informal conversation between two friends discussing places they had visited and advising each other where to go. They had very considerately brought lists of these names which they presented to the members.

Mrs. McClure also conducted an entertaining musical program, given by a girls choral group from the school, she herself, accompanying them.

Their numbers were "The Lotus Flower" (R. Schuman), "The Little Sandman" (J. Brahms), and "Night Bells" (Vincent). A double trio "In The Still of the Night" (Cole Porter) was sung by Elmyra Alford, Gene Crosby, Mary Jane Drysdale, Margie Hansen, Joyce La Fevre and Norma McIntyre.

Margie Hansen also sang a solo, "Dedication" (Franz).

Other members of the group not named were Eunice Brown, Virginia Cameron, Gwen Cass, Beverly Dowe, Mary Dowe, Betty Gaines, Carole Miller, Barbara Smith, Alpha Sawyer, and Maxine Thayer.

The committee which was responsible for the program and the artistically arranged bouquets of mixed flowers were Mrs. W. A. Kench, chairman, Mrs. R. W. Kennedy and Mrs. Hubert Wagner.

Mrs. W. R. Morgan conducted the business meeting at which plans were completed for the picnic on June 3, which will be held at the home of Mrs. L. J. Carboni, Los Gatos-Santa Clara road.

Cars will leave the library at 11:45. Members not already signed up phone a member of the committee as to what food to bring. Each person provides her own table service.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Beach and son, Philip of Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived last Thursday and are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillis of Winchester road, and aunt Mrs. M. E. Purmort and family. Mrs. Beach is head dietician in the Veteran's hospital in Salt Lake City, and they will leave Monday for their home.

The Campbell Union grammar school orchestra, under the leadership of A. A. Thielke, will give their annual concert at the Odd Fellows Home at Saratoga Friday, following a picnic dinner in the late afternoon.

BADLY WARPED

Donald Martin Is Awarded U. C. Scholarship

Donald Martin a senior of Campbell Union high school, has been awarded a scholarship of $250 at the University of California at Berkeley.

The University of California club of Santa Clara county, made up of allumni of that university in this county provide a fund which is used for two scholarships of $250 each for the university each year. The club puts up half the money and the university puts up half.

Scholarships are granted on the bases of scholarship, leadership, interests, personality, more than on need for money alone.

Four students from each high school of the county are selected for further consideration and after tests and comparisons, two are eventually selected. This year the choice rested upon Don Martin and Charles Jelavich of Mountain View.

Don credits part of his success to his reportorial work for the Campbell Press during his first years in high school and later for the San Jose Mercury Herald.

Red Cross Drive Moves Slowly

Attention is again called to the campaign for funds for the Red Cross for relief of the stricken peoples of Europe. Chairman G. E. Farley reports that contributions are coming in very slowly.

The Greyhound bus line show wihch was advertised to take place in Los Gatos Wednesday evening had to be called off, but may be given at some future date.

The bus will leave the regular bus corner, Tuesday, June 4 at 8:15 a. m. arriving back at 10:30 p. m. All those who are making reservations will report to Miss Stewart's class at the high school next Tuesday for instructions.

Ormsbee Talks On Forests At Kiwanis Meeting

H. N. Ormsbee, former state forestry engineer, talked on "Forest Management" at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday.

In discussing the proposed purchase by the state of the Loma Prieta forest he spoke of two advantages which would result, an increased income to the surrounding region from mills and by-products plants that would be attracted if a permanent source of lumber could be maintained by proper forestation; a recreational area be opened, and the water shed better protected.

He also explained the bill now before the state legislature to make possible California's taking advantage of the provisions of the federal Fulmer bill that grants long term loans to states without interest to acquire forests.

Ormsbee was introduced by Ben Davison.

Next week A. A. Thielke will present a program of instrumental music by school students.

Mrs. Rucker Hostess To Pundita Circle

Mrs. G. A. Rucker of the Vaughn subdivision was hostess Wednesday to Pundita Circle, her assisting committee being Mrs. D. H. Cramer, Mrs. C. E. York, Mrs. L. J. Carboni and Mrs. F. Stephens.

The club voted $10.00 to the Red Cross.

The topic for consideration was "California Missions" and in response to roll call each member named her favorite mission and the reason for the preference.

Mrs. Carboni was in charge of the program and presented a group of high school girls including Gladys Larson, Nedra Lawrence, Betty Bunda, Nora Brydon, Eleanor Mitchell, Evelyn Lester and Delta Courtney, with Betty York accompanist, who sang three selections, "Mother of Mine," dedicated to the mothers, "Will You Remember," and "Sylvia."

The chairman gave an interesting description of the missions, after which the social hour was enjoyed.

The next and final meeting of the year will be on June 5, a pot luck luncheon at the Capitola cottage of Mrs. E. K. Clendening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hanlon of Galesburg, Ill., arrived Monday evening and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyde and other Husted relatives, who have been showing them the beauties of this section. Friday their hosts plan a trip to Yosemite as a fitting climax to the weeks tours.

Mrs. Marie Potter has returned from a short visit with Miss Mattie Curran at Lakeport whom she accompanied home last week. They had worked together for several years when Miss Curran was in charge of the local telephone office.

Popular Pair Married at Del Monte Chapel

At an impressive ceremony, Miss Elizabeth Mumma and Melvin Hall McDonald, were united in marriage in the beautiful little chapel of St. John at Del Monte at 1:30 o'clock Sunday, May 19.

The Episcopal service, read by the rector, the Rev. Theodore Bell, before an altar banked with white flowers and lighted with white candles was witnessed by only near relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride, given into the keeping of the bridegroom by her father, was very charming in a modish beige suit, with brown hat and accessories, and wearing a corsage of orchids. Her bridesmaid was a cousin, Miss Lucile Fore and her dress was blue with a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia.

The groom's attendant was his younger brother, George McDonald and James Niebel, another cousin of the bride, acted as usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the spacious country home of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Niebel near Carmel. Mrs. Niebel is an aunt of the bride and she and her husband are also her godparents.

A profusion of blue delphinium and white flowers was used in the living room, while the decorations in the dining room were exquisite white carnations with dainty gypsophlia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell E. Mumma of Virginia avenue, and is a graduate of the local schools and has an A B from San Jose State college where she majored in art. She continued her art studies at the Chouinard school in Los Angeles.

The groom is also a graduate of San Jose State and is in the office of the Pacific Gas and Electric company in San Jose. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McDonald of San Jose.

One of the very happy features of the day was the presence of the bride's only living grandparent Mrs. Christie Denhart, now 84 years of age.

The bride's brother, Herold Mumma was there from Hollywood, remaining with his parents here until Wednesday. Her aunt Mrs. Vivian Fore, and daughters, Lucile who was in the bridal party, and Eldana arrived Friday from Glendale and returned Sunday after the reception.

The young couple are enjoying an auto trip to Canada and after June 1 will be at home on Overlook road in Los Gatos.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Granstrom of the Sprouse-Reitz store are spending a weeks vacation at Grand Canyon and Boulder dam. The store is in charge of M. J. Erickson of Santa Clara during their absence.

IT'S VACATION TIME!

Johnny can't keep his eyes on the school blackboard. Papa thinks the desk or work bench he's chained to is a device of punishment. Mama dreams of exchanging the house, dishes, stove and dust mop for the cool green woods, the shimmering beaches, or the beckoning mountains.

For vacation time is upon us. War-torn Europe has lost its lure for summer travelers, and the theme song of millions of easterners is California, Here We Come! Officials of fairs, fiestas, rodeos and summer resorts of a hundred varieties are jubilant for the same reason. California visitors, tourist records indicate, see the whole state when they come out here, for the whole state has golden allure. California will profit greatly by their spending. And in a year when there is so little opportunity for carefree pleasure in so much of a disaster-blackened universe, it's good to know that in this lucky land visitors and homefolk will have the time of their lives.

THE JONESES SAY NO!

Back in Chicago (the Windy City) 70 smart fellows by the name of Thompson have organized what they call "The Thompson Plan"—a scheme to give everybody named Thompson a $200 a month pension, plus all the ham and eggs they can eat without indigestion. The payoff bobs up, however, in a proviso that all costs of the program shall be defrayed by a tax on the Smiths, Joneses, Browns and Johnsons. California had something like that on the ballot last year. But the Smiths and the Joneses, the Browns and the Johnsons just wouldn't go for it!

MEMORIAL DAY, 1940

They will be digging new graves by scores of thousands, on Memorial Day, in Flanders fields, in sunny France, in the bomb-mutilated tulip beds of Holland, in icy Norway, in the green countryside of England, in the soil of conquest-crazed Germany. Pain and passion of hate will cease there, in the deathless armistice of the grave, for oppressor and victim, for aggressor and defender. But the living pain of unutterable anguish will tear the hearts of the mothers who follow broken bodies to the graves and the awful passion of righteous hatred for the monstrous thing that is war.

American mothers, too, will visit graves of their soldier dead on Memorial Day. But here grief, by time's healing, is a gentler emotion; its substance cherished memories. And here thought of the monstrous thing that is war will be calmer thought; a deep and impassioned but reasoned resolution that tragedies of the past must never be relived. The voice of American women has been potent in strengthening the will to peace in this land since the carnage of hell broke overseas. May the solemn observances of Memorial Day strengthen the mothers of America's soldier dead in their earnest prayer that it shall not happen to this nation again.

CALIFORNIA CARNIVAL

With the enthusiasm typical of celebration-loving Californians, the Fair of '40 will get under way to a noisy start on Treasure Island this Saturday—too noisy, or just noisy enough, according to how you view the hot-cha features to be played up this year.

The Exposition will be long on gaiety and the spectacular, from Billy Rose's Aquacade of swimming beauties to a new host of swing bands and lesser attractions on an elongated Gayway—but short on solid educational exhibits, as compared with the '39 Exposition. However, the dearth of serious attractions may be more apparent than real. Naturally, many foreign countries now in war zones cannot repeat their instructive exhibits of last autumn. But the art and culture and industrial progress of California and all America will be there to reassure those who may fear that California's Fair is now just a California Carnival—sufficient worth-while dispaly to absorb all the time they may have to spend at the Island. Perhaps, too, the heavy stress on the carnival aspect may have its high value in this particular year when there is a blue hue of worry to contemplation of national and world affairs. It may be a long, long while before another World Fair is held. And it may be well that our Fair in '40 be the gayest ever held.

Investiture Service For New Scout Troop Tonight

An investiture or formal introduction service for the Catholic Boy Scout troop No. 29, will be held tonight, May 23, in St. Lucy's church in Campbell.

Father Powleson and Frank Drady of San Francisco, assisted by Fr. Paul Coleman of St. Patrick's church in San Jose, will be in charge of the services. The service will include the benediction by Fr. Raymond Reali, of St. Lucy's church; the giving out of the certificates and neckerchiefs, and the presentation of the charter to the new troop.

Representatives from all Catholic troops in Santa Clara county will attend and assist in the services which will be opened by the singing of the national anthem by the audience, followed by the presentation of the American and Boy Scout flags.

The following boys have passed their tenderfoot tests and will be invested: Ralph Bogner, George Cross, Patrick Curry, Nathan Dardonelli, Leslie Gagliasso, Frank Dardonelli, Merrill Grimm, Arthur Greco, George Flagle, Lewis Hughes, Rudy Novakovich, John Novakovich, George Orlando, Peter Ragus, William Schlosson, Frank Smith, Anthony Vicari.

The troop committee is composed of Berkeley S. Gilson, chairman; J. V. Homen, secretary-treasurer; J. V. Gomes, advancement; T. M. Pimentel, camping and activities; J. R. Roll, health and safety.

Campbell Scouts Attend Camporee

Spartan field on May 18-19, was the scene of the annual Santa Clara County Boy Scout Camporee in which over 600 Scouts and Scouters participated.

Campbell troop 28 attended 100 per cent, one of the very few troops with perfect attendance. Every boy was in uniform, and although almost half the group were not equipped with tents troop 28 made a fine showing and great improvement in camping ability. All camping equipment (made by the boys themselves in recent weeks) was set up and kept in good order.

Howard Payne's exhibit of reptiles entertained many interested spectators during the camporee merit badge exhibition.

The highlight of the week end, for at least two members of troop 28, was the competition for official camporee bugler. Dave Keesling and Bobby Hall placed first and second respectively, and were awarded beautifully engraved gold and silver medals.

Scoutmaster Gus Standish wishes to thank publicly the Scout committee who rendered much needed assistance and helped make the whole affair a grand success.

Troop 28 committeemen are: Mark E. Purmort, chairman; Howard J. Smith, camping; Antone Ferro, secretary-treaurer; George E. Jeffers, advancement; Rev. J. H. Bennett, health and safety.

HOW?

Those mountains of beauty
To me they surely call,
In every season,
Spring, summer, and fall.
Those lovely fresh springs
And fir trees so tall,
But how can I reach you
Lovely picture on the wall?

Mob Rule Retreats

The south may be the nation's number one economic problem, but this week it has been a source of heartening news. A few midnights ago the south ended its first year without a lynching. That stark and ugly crime of mob rule has in recent years shown a marked decline, but never before has the south presented a perfect record in a 12 month period. Mob violence has begun to retreat — thanks to more, better, and faster law enforcement.
